A New Perspective On Relationships.

This Summit is guaranteed to be an unforgettable experience! From June 4-7, 2002, at the Hyatt Regency Grand Cypress Resort, in Orlando, Florida, you'll find yourself in a networking goldmine, attending educational sessions, panel discussions, lab workshops and more with other participants from contract-intensive industries like Healthcare, Foodservice and Consumer Goods! At the Summit you'll also have the opportunity to learn about the industry, trading partners and I-many's revolutionary solutions in Contract Management.

But it's not all work and no play! Don't forget about our Opening Reception, our own unique game show entitled "The Summit Challenge" and the always-fantastic Gala event. Feel free to come early or stay after the Summit to enjoy the many recreational activities the Grand Cypress has to offer including sailing on a private lake, taking a ride at the equestrian center, playing a round on the Jack Nicklaus-designed golf course and so much more! By mixing business with pleasure, you'll find that this Summit has the perfect environment to make opportunities shine. And after learning about I-many's innovative solutions, you'll understand why we say we offer A New Perspective on Relationships.

So keep June 4-7, 2002 open on your calendar, because you won't regret attending the I-many Summit in Orlando, Florida.
