

PORTLAND monthly.com

Maine's City Magazine

subscribe archives events contact our history

latest issue from the editor news about us sample stories writer's guidelines internships

News About PORTLAND

• Portland Magazine Editor Colin Sargent is the 2005 winner of 2nd Place, Third Annual Maine Screenwriting Competition, for his full length feature screenplay Montebello Ice. A panel of judges evaluated all the screenplays and noted the high caliber of this year's entries. The winners were announced at the screenwriting seminar at the Celebration of Maine Filmmakers' program in Waterville as part of the Maine International Film Festival.

• Portland Magazine Grand Prize Winner at the Maggie Zine Awards

Portland Magazine is the winner of both Best Cover and Best of the Show awards at the 2004 Maggie Zine Cover Award Competition, conducted in Greensboro, North Carolina, by NewsStand Resource. The winning cover, The Lure of Maine: Summerguide 2004, art directed by Jesse Stenbak, Danny Louten, and Miroslaw Jurek, features an image of Portland Head Light by William H. Johnson in the background and a lobster feast in the foreground, with lobsters, mussels, and corn on the cob. The cover took first place nationally in the City, Regional, and Special magazine category for achievement in art direction and newsstand appeal, and then as a capping honor was chosen to be the Grand Prize Winner as Best of the Show. Results of the competition will appear in the Spring 2005 edition of NewsStand Resource.

Restaurant Reviews

Going Out To Eat?

Click Here to Visit Our Restaurant Section

Visit Portland Magazine's Wild Mustang "Reno"

